Friday, Nov. 4

7:00 PM - *The Rules of the Road: Marriage is like traveling in a vehicle down the road of life, but that journey can bring its own unique set of challenges and issues. To reach our destination safely and to enjoy the ride along the way, we have to know the rules of the road. This session will consider the practical and helpful rules found in Colossians 3 for traveling down the road of marital happiness.

8:00 PM - Break-out Session for Men and Women

Roadblocks and Detours - Progress toward a destination can be impeded by accidents, landslides, floodwaters, and work crews. These roadblocks and detours are frustrating and often dangerous. In this session some of the roadblocks which impede progress toward marital happiness will be explored, with special emphasis given to the peculiar issues relating to husbands and wives.

8:45 PM - Marriage Devotional

Saturday, Nov. 5

9:00 AM - *Road Rage: Managing the Conflicts - Conflict and the anger that often accompanies it, is a fact of life. Like road rage, anger and resentment are dangerous to your marital safety. How couples communicate and manage their disagreements is critical to marital health. In this session couples will be given practical advice for dealing with anger and how to properly communicate and resolve conflict.

10:00 AM Break-out Session *Knowing your Passenger

Women: What husbands wish their wives knew about men

Many couples often miss out on the joy and spiritual connection that can exist because they fail to follow the road map designed by God. Consequently, many couples never see the beautiful vistas and pleasant creation of the sexual relationship. This session will focus on some practical advice and general principles for helping couples fulfill God's plan for marriage.
